Inner City

Brisbane City J14

As Queensland's premier shopping destination, Brisbane City is stocked with renowned brands and unique boutiques. Sample fine dining by the river, explore cool bars, visit unique cafes serving up local blends, wander through discreet laneways and arcades revealing hidden surprises, or discover a quiet oasis of beautiful parks, divine galleries and inspiring buildings such as the heritage-listed Brisbane City Hall, home to the Museum of Brisbane.

Eagle Street M14

Eagle Street is a definite dining stand-out in Brisbane thanks to the dozens of award-winning restaurants lining the river's edge, framed at night by the lights of the Story Bridge. Join the locals after dark as they frequent the street's lively bars and cosy pubs.

Edward Street L14

From international brands to independent boutiques, Edward Street is a prime destination to find sought-after and unique fashion. In between bouts of retail therapy, choose from an assortment of dining options or discover unique spaces such as Metro Arts, dedicated to showcasing professional and independent artists.

Queen Street Mall K15

The Queen Street Mall offers an unrivalled mix of local, national and international brands and flagship stores. Must-visits include the sparkling high-end QueensPlaza, the diverse Wintergarden, the historically-significant Brisbane Arcade and Tattersall's Arcade, the convenient MacArthur Central and the ever-popular The Myer Centre. You can also enjoy live performances throughout the Mall as part of The City Sounds, Australia's largest free live music program.

Cultural Precinct H16

In the heart of South Bank you will find Brisbane's cultural epicentre, home to thriving arts, cultural and performance institutions. Take in a show at the Queensland Performing Arts Centre, view world-class art exhibitions at the Queensland Art Gallery and Gallery of Modern Art, enjoy a family outing at the Queensland Museum and Sciencentre, or join a workshop at the State Library of Queensland.

South Bank H20

Stroll through the lush surrounds of the subtropical South Bank Parklands, following the 1km trail of the bougainvillea-lined harbour. Begin with a bird's-eye view of the city from the Wheel of Brisbane, then go for a swim at the iconic Streets Beach. End your walk at the Epicurious Garden, where you can discover exotic plants and fragrant herbs. Tantalise your tastebuds at River Quay, or head up to Little Stanley and Grey Streets for a global culinary adventure.

Chinatown O9

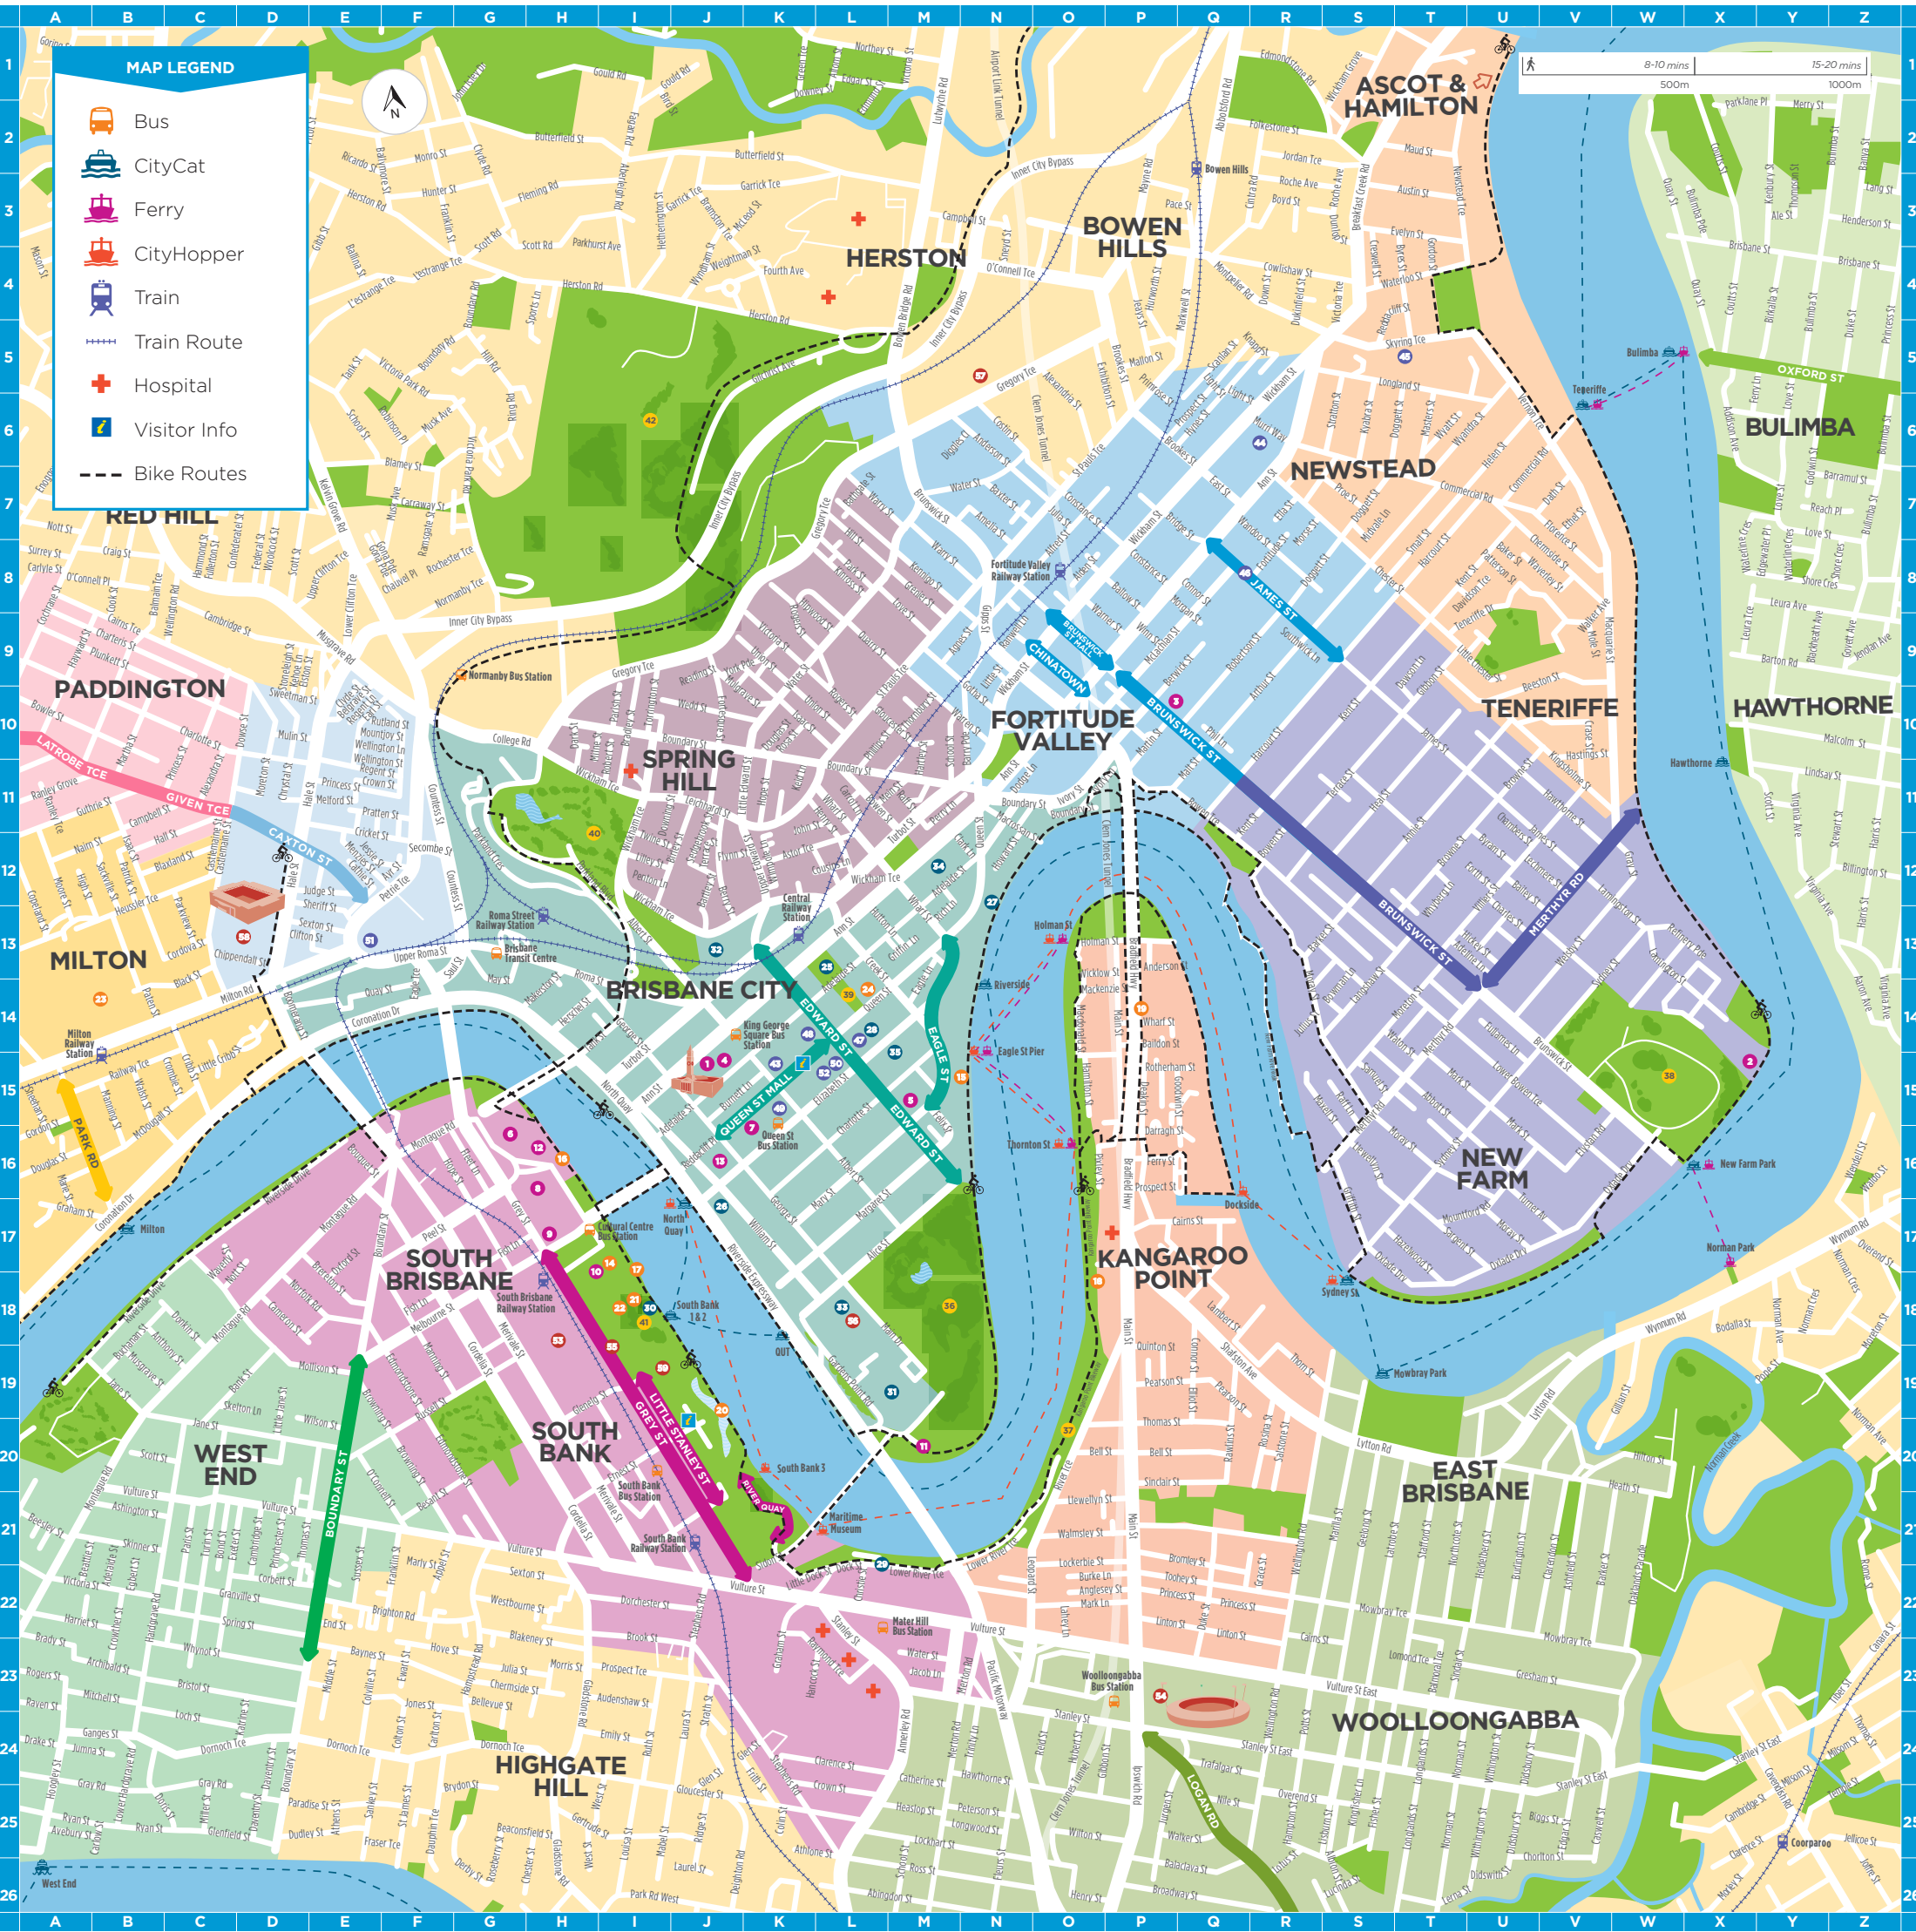

Fortitude Valley's Chinatown is the place to discover exotic ingredients in the hustle and bustle of Chinese supermarkets, indulge in steaming Yum Cha and sample the varied and colourful flavours of authentic Asian cuisines. Savor the smells and sounds of fresh ingredients sizzling in a wok and soak up the architecture, and colours of Asia.

Fortitude Valley O10

Fortitude Valley is Brisbane's entertainment capital. Give your wallet a workout in the boutiques that line Brunswick St, Ann St and all the laneways that weave a web between them, just waiting to be discovered by keen shoppers. At night feel the Valley really come into its own. Flock with fellow music-lovers to live gigs or enjoy the bounty of Brisbane's best bartenders.

James Street R8

Fortitude Valley's James Street is a boutique fashion mecca. Here you'll find a cosmopolitan selection of fashion by some of the local iconic designers as well as boutique homeware and gifts. All that shopping is sure to work up a thirst, so wet your whistle at one of the area's relaxed coffee shops or open-air bars. Don't rush off either - with some of Brisbane's best chefs working hard to delight diners, you're sure to want to stay on James Street well into the evening.

Precincts

Ascot & Hamilton T1

Hugging the banks of the Brisbane River and replete with stately architecture, the Ascot and Hamilton precinct is a safe harbour for seekers of refined leisure. Take a punt at the racecourse, marvel at the giant cruise ships in port, sample cuisines from around the globe at the colourful Eat Street Markets, indulge in fine dining at Portside or view a curio at the art-house cinema.

Bulimba Y6

Hop on a CityCat and cruise to trendy Bulimba, a vibrant and distinctive village not far from the city. Stroll along Oxford St, the suburb's bustling retail centre, and choose from an abundance of restaurants, cafes, bars, homeware and fashion stores.

Caxton Street E12

One of Brisbane's famed sporting nightlife hotspots, Caxton Street is a hub of live music, nail-biting footy matches at Suncorp Stadium and good old-fashioned drinking holes. For those seeking sustenance, stroll up to the top of the street to The Barracks for gastronomic delights.

Kangaroo Point P17

With stunning cliff-top views of the city, Kangaroo Point is the place to get active. Paddle the river on a kayak or stand-up paddleboard, go abseiling, rock climbing, or climb the Story Bridge for awesome views and round off the day with funky sounds by the river at Brisbane Jazz Club.

New Farm S12

New Farm boasts open spaces and relaxed dining options within a mere stone's throw of the city. Lose track of time cafe-hopping along Brunswick St and poking through Merthyr Rd's boutiques. Explore the Brisbane Powerhouse, an electric hub for music, fun, comedy, theatre and art. Then take time to stop and smell the roses in New Farm Park.

Newstead & Teneriffe U7

Teneriffe's riverside is dotted with an iconic row of brick warehouses, fondly known as the Woolstores, while Newstead boasts the eye-catching Gasometer. Originally an industrial hub, the precinct has undergone an urban resurgence where beautiful historic buildings have been transformed into bustling boutique beer houses, paleo cafes and alfresco riverside restaurants.

Paddington B10

Once a workers' suburb connected to the city by trams, Paddington has evolved into a trendy bohemian enclave. The rolling and leafy hills are lined with Queenslander-style homes and quaint cottages turned enticing shopfronts, cafes and restaurants. Stroll along the suburb's backbone of Latrobe Tce and browse for quirky keepsakes, vintage and designer fashion, homewares and artwork.

Park Road A16

Cosmopolitan with a touch of European flavour, Park Road in Milton is a melting pot of colourful gift shops, bars, fashion houses and restaurants. A replica Eiffel Tower stands to attention above the strip, looming above the de rigueur sports cars regularly patrolling the precinct.

Roma Street Parkland & Spring Hill J11

Nestled on the city fringe, Roma Street Parkland is a haven among the skyscrapers, with its open lawns and colourful garden beds. Enjoy the parklands at your own pace, spying some of its resident native animals on your way, or book a guided tour of Spring Hill focusing on the precinct's history with stops at Queensland's oldest surviving building, The Old Windmill, and the heritage-listed Spring Hill Baths.

West End D20

Alternative, multicultural and unique, West End is a seamless fusion of the delightfully dorky and cutting-edge cool. Hole-in-the-wall cafes laden with pop art and traditional kebab shops sit alongside stylish wine bars and hipster-approved eateries. Hop between shopping for retro finds at Boundary St's thrift shops to discovering your new favourite cocktail or international dish.

Woolloongabba T24

Home to the famous Gabba, if the timing's right you can spend the day marvelling at a world-class sporting match. Those looking for a slower pace can lose themselves in the myriad of antique and vintage stores, or step inside a converted warehouse to savour a fine drop and gourmet meal.

Getting Around Brisbane

Want to know the easiest way to get around town? Pick up a TransLink go card and travel seamlessly on all TransLink bus, ferry and rail services across South East Queensland. The perfect travel companion, go cards are available from Queensland Rail stations, online, over the phone or selected retailers. Top up the card balance like a prepaid mobile phone whenever it suits. gocard.translink.com.au 13 12 30

Make the most of Brisbane's wonderful outdoor climate by biking around town. There are extensive bicycle paths running throughout the city and peddle-power offers a healthy and inexpensive way of getting around. Hire a Brisbane City Council CityCycle bike at key inner-city destinations and set off to explore. By law, it is a condition of hire that helmets are worn by users. Courtesy helmets are available with many of the bikes at stations across the network. Join up with the CityCycle program today! citycycle.com.au 1300 229 253

Explore Brisbane's neighbourhoods through a comprehensive bus service that runs throughout the city, connecting the outer and inner suburbs to the CBD, major shopping centres, entertainment and dining precincts, railway stations and ferry terminals. Take advantage of special NightLink bus services running after midnight on Fridays and Saturdays for late-night travellers. Or get around the inner city with the free City Loop and Spring Hill Loop. Plan your trip now on TransLink's journey planner. jp.translink.com.au 13 12 30

Take a taxi and be there in a flash. Taxi ranks are available at the Brisbane international and domestic airports, as well as throughout the city and inner-city precincts. Jump in a taxi to be assured of a quick and efficient way of getting around. A standard taxi will cater for four passengers or less. For wheel-chair access or to transport five to 10 passengers, it's best to order a Multi Passenger taxi. Black & White Cabs 131 008 Yellow Taxi 13 19 24

Brisbane's speedy network of electric trains has the Greater Brisbane region covered and provides direct access to the city, quirky neighbourhood precincts and outer suburbs. There is also a handy Airtrain service that is completely integrated into the Queensland Rail suburban network, with regular trains running from Brisbane Airport directly to the city and the Gold Coast. Travel on a single ticket from any station in South East Queensland to Brisbane Airport. translink.com.au 13 12 30

Let the river be your guide. Brisbane's ferries, affectionately known as CityCats, are one of the most enjoyable ways to explore Brisbane. Glide along the river with CityCat and CityFerry services, perfect for sight-seeing and accessing key city spots. Tickets can be bought on board the services, at most newsagents and selected retail outlets, or make use of a go card. Hop on board the free CityHopper ferry service to get around inner-city precincts for free. translink.com.au 13 12 30

Free Transport

Hail a bus for free in the inner city. The City Loop and Spring Hill Loop bus services circle the city every 10 minutes and stop at destinations in the CBD and Spring Hill precincts between 7am-6pm weekdays. Glide between Brisbane's inner-city precincts by hopping on the free CityHopper ferry service, which travels along the river from North Quay to Sydney St, New Farm. translink.com.au 13 12 30

Brisbane City Council now offers free wireless internet (wi-fi) access in the Queen Street Mall, Reddcliff Place, Victoria Bridge, South Bank Parklands, Brisbane libraries, on CityCats and a number of parks and public spaces. brisbane.qld.gov.au/wi-fi-brisbane
